

Four piazzas through central Rome

Walk from Piazza Navona to the Spanish Steps, with the Pantheon exterior and Trevi on the way. Each stop is a public square; interiors and controlled viewing areas need separate time and access checks.

1.81 km / 4 stops / 50-75 min with pauses / one way

1. Piazza Navona

2. Piazza della Rotonda

3. Trevi public viewing area

4. Piazza di Spagna

Start & finish

Start in Piazza Navona, clear of the fountain edges. Finish in Piazza di Spagna at the bottom of the steps. Plan transport to the start and from the finish separately.

Make it shorter

Finish at the Pantheon square after Piazza Navona. These two stops make a useful short visit without the longer, busier Trevi leg.

Look closer at each stop

01 Piazza Navona

Begin in the long square and notice how its narrow shape differs from a typical rectangular piazza. Look at fountains and façades from the public walking area.

Next: 571 m to stop 2. Route includes Piazza Navona, Largo della Sapienza, Via del Teatro Valle.

02 Piazza della Rotonda

The Pantheon's columned entrance dominates this smaller square. Compare the heavy columns with the more delicate details of the surrounding façades.

Next: 601 m to stop 3. Route includes Piazza della Rotonda, Via dei Pastini, Via delle Muratte.

03 Trevi public viewing area

Approach the fountain through the lanes and pause only where permitted. The water and sculpture occupy much of the small space, so a brief look may be more comfortable than a long stop.

Next: 641 m to stop 4. Route includes Piazza di Trevi, Via Poli, Via del Bufalo.

04 Piazza di Spagna

Finish beside the lower square, looking up the Spanish Steps. You can appreciate the composition without climbing; keep the steps and fountain edges clear.

Underfoot & access

Uneven stone paving, narrow streets, delivery traffic and dense crowds. The route finishes at the foot of the Spanish Steps and does not require climbing them. Keep to pavements at larger crossings.

Before you go

Trevi crowd-management and access rules can change; view it from the public space available on the day. Pantheon admission and other interiors are not part of this walk. Never sit on or enter fountains.
